

CENTRAL OHIO NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

Box 1561, Dublin, OH 43017

September meeting

When: 7 p.m., Sept. 21, 2011
Where: Oakstone Academy
900 Club Dr., Westerville
Topic: Twenty cent pieces
Speaker: Steve Petty

In Memoriam

Death is not an infrequent visitor to our club. Many of us are older and mindful of the shortness of the candle.

However, the deaths of two of our younger club members Kevin Gibbs, 47, and Mark Petty, 21, was a shock to us all. Remember them and their loved ones in your prayers.

Tributes prepared by club historian Ed Hilbert are included with this newsletter.

September presentation

Steve Petty expands on the presentation about 20 cent pieces he gave to the Liberty Seated Collectors Club at the coin show.

The double dime was proposed in 1792, 1806 and 1850 before finally entering production in 1875.

Show and tell

John Roberts brought this Columbus CWT mule to a recent meeting.

William H. Restieaux' store stood at 106 S. High St., a few doors south of the Statehouse. He lived on Spring Street between 4th and 5th Avenues.

Scenes from the show

What a great show.

Great exhibits, happy dealers and rising gold and silver prices.

Charles, Club president, wants to thank all of the green hats that helped make our Labor Day Coin Show a success.

Professional photographer Chris Miller, son of Pete and Covenia, took these photos at the Labor Day show. These photos and more are posted online at www.zabadu.com/CONA2011
